VI. Reports

A. Chair’s Report

The Chair is waiting to hear from the Mayor regarding next steps for the innovation district zoning.

B. Resiliency Liaison’s Report

Mr. Allard was not present to give his report.

C. Staff Report

1. Innovation Zoning: https://www.brookings.edu/blog/the-avenue/2019/02/21/innovation-districts-and-their-dilemmas-with-place/

   Secretary Brooks noted the interesting components of disconnect, dead zones, and divides, as described in the article. He thought it wise to identify anchor institutions (such as URI or RISD) that could help support the work of the innovation district. Events will also be important to attract visitors to the district.

2. Short-Term Rentals

   The administration will be hiring an enforcement officer, as recommend in the report. The Mayor is working on a resolution directing additional tasks to the Planning Board.

3. Subdivision Regulations Amendment

   The City Planner is working through some case law issues with the amendments to the regulations and hopes to present to the Board next month.

4. Technical Review Committee Report
a. Development Plan Review for 10 Washington Square (Bank Newport)
The Technical Review Committee approved development plans for 10 Washington Square at their June 12, 2019 meeting.

This subdivision was approved by the designated Administrative Officer on June 26, 2019.

6. West Side Master Plan Summit
The Aquidneck Island Planning Commission (AIPC) held a summit to review the 2005 West Side Master Plan and identify areas for continued efforts.

7. AIPC Housing Forum
A report summarizing the AIPC’s March Housing Forum has been completed.

8. Recording of Decisions
The City Planner will be preparing decisions for the Chair’s signature moving forward. Decisions are the written record of the Board’s finding in a petition and are recorded in perpetuity in the Office of Land Evidence Records.

9. Meeting Notices
The City Planner will sign Board members up for meeting notices directly from the Secretary of State Open Meetings portal.

VII. Adjournment
A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Vice-Chair Barry and seconded by Ms. Pattavina. The motion passed unanimously.
The meeting adjourned at 8:50 pm.
