- VI. Docket No. 26-05-EL – Rhode Island Energy’s 2026 Annual Retail Rate Filing (Company) – This docket pertains to the Company’s proposed rate adjustments arising out of the Company’s annual reconciliations of various charges effective April 1, 2026 as a result of an Open Meeting vote on March 31, 2026. Among the rate changes voted upon were the Company’s transmission base charges, transmission adjustment factor, and transmission uncollectible factor. The Commission voted to suspend the Company’s base transmission charge based upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission’s (FERC) Order designated as “Opinion No. 594.” The Commission directed the Company to make an updated transmission rate filing by the earlier of the following two dates: (i) within thirty days of receiving the refunds specified in FERC’s Order; or (ii) June 1, 2026. On May 29, 2026, the Company requested an extension of time to August 1, 2026 to file the updated Transmission filing to allow for additional time for further development of the refund approach. Additionally, the Company noted that it can calculate the Local Network Service (“LNS”) refund required under the FERC Order for the period beginning

January 1, 2023, when the Company became a New England Transmission Owners (NETO). That amount is $3,257,201, not including applicable interest. The Company indicated that it will reflect a credit of that amount, plus applicable interest, in the proposed August 1 filing. On May 29, 2026, the Company's request was conditionally granted until a date that the Commission could vote on the Company's request for extension of time at Open Meeting. At this Open Meeting, the Commission will review the filings, and a vote will be taken.

Gen. Laws § 39-1-27.3(c) and the 2025 Last Resort Service Procurement Plan. In addition, the Company moved for Protective Treatment of Confidential Information, asserting that the information for which the Company seeks protection falls within the exception to the Access to Public Records Act pertaining to commercially sensitive financial information (R.I. Gen. Laws § 38-2-2(4)(B)). The Division of Public Utilities and Carriers (Division) filed a memorandum stating that the proposed LRS rates are correctly calculated and that the power supply procurements comply with the LRS Procurement Plan and recommended approval as filed. At this Open Meeting, the Commission will review the filings and vote on the Company's Motion for Protective Treatment and the Company's proposed LRS rates for the Industrial Group as filed.
