Proclamation

*For the City of East Providence by His Honor
Mayor Roberto L. DaSilva*

“Diwali, Festival of Lights”

WHEREAS, Diwali or Deepavali, is celebrated in autumn of each year by Hindus, Sikhs, Jains, Buddhist and others throughout East Providence; and

WHEREAS, Diwali is celebrated by lighting the Diya, or oil lamp, which symbolizes dispelling darkness and bringing light into life with traditional offerings, rituals and festivals; and

WHEREAS, Diwali is a festival of lights that includes traditions such as gathering with friends and family for community prayer, exchanging gifts, setting off fireworks, and decorating houses with colorful rangolis; and

WHEREAS, Diwali is also the Hindu New Year, and is celebrated on the darkest Day of the Indian Lunar month of Karik, during the new moon; and

WHEREAS, for Sikhs, Diwali is the day on which Guru Hargobind, the sixth of 10 founders, was released from confinement by the Mughal Emperor Jehangir; and

WHEREAS, for Jains, Diwali symbolizes Lord Mahavira attainment of Nirvana; and

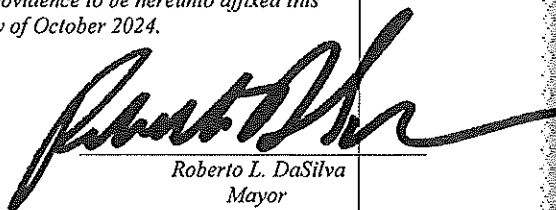

WHEREAS, for Hindus, Diwali is the celebration of good triumphing over evil, and that light will prevail over darkness; and

WHEREAS, for Buddhists, Diwali represents the day Emperor Ashoka chose the peaceful path of Buddhism over destruction and carnage; and

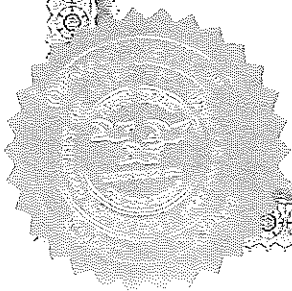

WHEREAS, diversity represents one of our greatest strengths and East Providence join with all those around the world celebrating Diwali.

THEREFORE, I, Mayor Roberto L. DaSilva, on behalf of the City of East Providence, recognize the celebration of “Diwali” from October 28th to November 3rd, 2024 in the City of East Providence.

In recognition whereof, I have hereby set my hand and caused the seal of the City of East Providence to be hereunto affixed this 15th day of October 2024.

Proclamation

*For the City of East Providence by His Honor
Mayor Roberto L. DaSilva
"Native American Heritage Month"*

WHEREAS, during Native American Heritage Month, East Providence recognizes and honors the first people to call this Nation home, while also committing to the collective and institutional work we must continue to embrace as we create a City that respects, values and uplifts indigenous people; and

WHEREAS, over the course of the last few years, we celebrated the unveiling of a new mural honoring the Pokanoket tribe, the development of the Mayor's Advisory Council on Indigenous Affairs, and the first intertribal Pow Wow in the City of East Providence; and

WHEREAS, while we celebrate these achievements, we remind ourselves that they are but small signs of goodwill and progress in the journey toward truth and healing while we fully educate ourselves on the histories and cultures of the first peoples in order to codesign a future that elevates Native voices and experiences where many of our predecessors sought their eradication; and

WHEREAS, the Pokanoket Tribe of the Pokanoket Nation or Pokanoket Confederacy was the largest Indian Nation in the Colonial Times in Southern New England; and

WHEREAS, the territories of native peoples in southern New England were fairly extensive and together, numerous tribes and bands formed the Pokanoket Nation; and

WHEREAS, in Bristol, Rhode Island, at the head of Narragansett Bay, was Potumtuk (the lookout of Pokanoket) known today as Mount Hope, which was the seat of The Massasoit (Great Leader) of all the Pokanokets; and

WHEREAS, during King Philip's War 1675-1678, the colonial government made it illegal for any male 14 years of age or older to call himself Pokanoket or he could be put to death; and

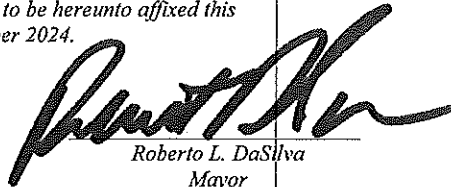

WHEREAS, the Pokanoket were called Wampanoag from that point on in history, but Wampanoag refers to a nation, not a tribe; and

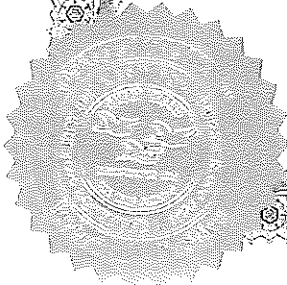

WHEREAS, it is incumbent that we remind ourselves of the price indigenous peoples had to—and continue to—pay as a result of centuries of oppression and we owe it to them to better understand, acknowledge and elevate their place as the first peoples of these lands; and

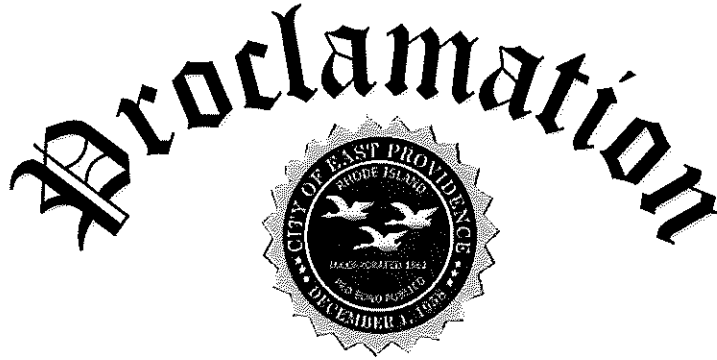

WHEREAS, East Providence commits to the lifelong process of learning more about the diverse Indigenous communities in our City as we work toward truth, justice and accountability for all.

THEREFORE, I, Mayor Roberto L. DaSilva, on behalf of the City of East Providence, proclaim that November 2024 be recognized as "Native American Heritage Month" in the City of East Providence.

In recognition whereof, I have hereby set my hand and caused the seal of the City of East Providence to be hereunto affixed this 15th day of October 2024.

I. Seller hereby represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) Seller is the fee simple owner of the Property.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and all other documents executed by Seller that are to be delivered at the Closing are, and at the Closing Date will be, duly authorized by Seller, and the consummation by Seller of the transaction contemplated hereby does not, and at the time of Closing will not, violate any provisions of any agreement or judicial order to which Seller is a party or to whom Seller is subject.

(d) Without imposing upon Seller any duty or obligation to investigate the same in connection with this Agreement (or any duty or obligation to retain professionals to do so), Seller has no actual notice or knowledge of suits or other legal proceedings pending or threatened against Seller or any affiliate of Seller in any way relating to or affecting the Property.

(e) Without imposing upon Seller any duty or obligation to investigate the same in connection with this Agreement (or any duty or obligation to retain professionals to do so), ~~Seller has no actual notice or knowledge of any eminent domain proceedings~~ affecting the Property, or of any action and/or proceedings to change the zoning and/or permitted uses of the Property.

II. Buyer hereby represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) As of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date that this Agreement and all documents executed by Buyer that are to be delivered to Seller in connection with this Agreement, including at the Closing are, or at the Closing Date will be, duly authorized, executed and delivered by Buyer and that this Agreement and such documents are legal, valid and binding obligations of Buyer and do not, and, at the time of Closing will not, violate any provisions of any agreement or judicial order to which Buyer is party or to whom it is subject.

(b) There is no action, proceeding, or litigation pending against Buyer which, if adversely determined, would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or restrict the ability of Buyer to consummate the transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

If, despite Seller's good faith, diligent efforts to cure such title issue(s), Seller is unable to cure the same as of the Closing Date, Buyer shall have the option to: (i) accept such title as Seller is able to convey without reduction of the Purchase Price, or (ii) cancel this Agreement, in which case the Deposit shall be promptly refunded to Buyer and the parties' obligations hereunder shall terminate. To enable Seller to make conveyance as provided in this Agreement, Seller may, at the time of delivery of the deed, use the purchase money or any portion thereof to clear the title of any or all encumbrances.

11. Inspections.

(a) Notwithstanding Seller's representations and warranties expressly made in this Agreement, upon which Buyer is expressly relying, Buyer's obligations under this Agreement are subject to Buyer's satisfaction, in Buyer's sole discretion, with the results of any (1) environmental site assessment of any nature and type requested or required by Buyer; and (2) inspection for the presence of oil and/or hazardous material, including, but not limited to, lead, radon, contaminants, toxic wastes and other hazardous substances, and/or other environmental issues, problems and/or concerns (collectively, the "Investigations"), to be performed by Buyer or its authorized agent(s) (collectively, the "Inspector"), at Buyer's sole expense, on, or relating to, the Property within forty-five (45) calendar days from the date of the last signatory to this Agreement (the "Due Diligence Review Period"). Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller from and against all losses, costs, and/or damages arising out of the Investigations, if any, conducted at the Property unless caused by the negligent, reckless, and/or intentional acts or omissions of Seller.

(b) Upon reasonable prior notice to Seller, the Inspector may enter the Property for the purposes of conducting the Investigations.

12. Mortgage Contingency. Not applicable.

13. Broker. Seller and Buyer respectively represent and warrant to each other that neither of them has consulted or negotiated with any real estate broker, agent, or finder with regard to this transaction. 16. Default. Upon default by Buyer, Seller shall have the right to retain the Deposit, with the same being Seller's sole and exclusive remedy at law or in equity. If Seller shall default in the performance of this Agreement, Buyer shall have the right to recover the Deposit, without prejudice to Buyer's right to pursue any and all remedies available to it at law or equity, including requiring specific performance.

17. Further Assurances: Each of the parties hereto agrees to execute and deliver such other documents, instruments, and affidavits as may reasonably be required to effect the transaction contemplated herein, including without limitation, any affidavits and agreements which may be required by Buyer's attorney and/or Buyer's title insurance company.

21. Entire Agreement. The parties hereto each declare that this instrument contains the entire agreement between them, subject to no understandings, conditions or representations other than those expressly stated herein. This Agreement may not be modified or amended in whole or in part except by a writing signed by all parties.

22. Governing Law/Forum Selection. This Agreement shall in all aspects be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Rhode Island without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Rhode Island or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Rhode Island, and the obligations, rights and remedies of the parties shall be determined in accordance with such laws. The parties agree that any litigation one (or more) party(ies) commences, maintains and/or is engaged in against any other party and/or parties (whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise) shall be brought exclusively in the courts of the State of Rhode Island, or the federal courts of the United States of America in the State of Rhode Island, with any right to bring, commence, engage and/or maintain litigation in any other courts being hereby waived to the fullest extent permitted by law. Each party hereby irrevocably submits generally and unconditionally for themselves and with respect to any and all property and/or rights that are the subject matter hereof, to the jurisdiction of the courts in the State of Rhode Island, or any United States federal court in the State of Rhode Island. Each party hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection that it/they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue in any such court and any claim that any such court is an inconvenient forum.

23. Counterparts and Copies. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Buyer and Seller agree to be bound by facsimile and/or electronic (e.g., .pdf) copies of duly executed documents.

24. Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that this Agreement may not be assigned without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.

25. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement or portion thereof which is unenforceable or invalid or the inclusion of which would affect the validity, legality or enforcement of this Agreement shall be of no effect, but all the remaining provisions of this Agreement or the remaining portion thereof, as the case may be, shall remain in full force and effect.

26. No Waiver. No amendment, agreement, release, consent or waiver, express or implied to or of any term or condition contained in this Agreement or breach shall be construed as an amendment, agreement, release, consent or waiver, unless the other party shall have executed and delivered a document clearly evidencing the same. No written amendment, agreement, release, consent or waiver to or of any term or condition contained in this Agreement or breach shall be construed as an amendment, agreement, release, consent or waiver of any other term or condition contained in this Agreement, or other breach. No supplement, modification, change or waiver of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the parties.

27. City Council Approval. This Agreement shall be subject to City Council approval of the City of East Providence at the earliest City Council meeting.

28. Construction. Each party acknowledges that it has been represented by legal counsel of its choice in the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement. Each party has read and reviewed this Agreement, in consultation with its legal counsel, and is aware not only of its content but also of its legal effect and consequences. Since the Agreement is a joint effort of the parties, and their respective counsel, it should and shall be construed with fairness as between the parties, and it should not and shall not be more strictly construed in favor of or against any particular party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the above parties have executed this Agreement as of the day and date set forth herein.

Rectangular Rapid Flashing Beacons (RRFB)

A marked crosswalk or pedestrian warning sign can improve safety for pedestrians crossing the road, but at times may not be sufficient for drivers to visibly locate crossing locations and yield to pedestrians. To enhance pedestrian conspicuity and increase driver awareness at uncontrolled, marked crosswalks, transportation agencies can install a pedestrian actuated Rectangular Rapid Flashing Beacon (RRFB) to accompany a pedestrian warning sign. RRFBs consist of two, rectangular-shaped yellow indications, each with a light-emitting diode (LED)-array-based light source.¹ RRFBs flash with an alternating high frequency when activated to enhance conspicuity of pedestrians at the crossing to drivers.

Transportation agencies should refer to the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD) for information on the application of RRFBs.¹

Applications

The RRFB is applicable to many types of pedestrian crossings but is particularly effective at multilane crossings with speed limits less than 40 miles per hour.² Research suggests RRFBs can result in motorist yielding rates as high as 98 percent at marked crosswalks, but varies depending on the location, posted speed limit, pedestrian crossing distance, one- versus two-way road, and the number of travel lanes.³ RRFBs can also accompany school or trail crossing warning signs.

RRFBs are placed on both sides of a crosswalk below the pedestrian crossing sign and above the diagonal downward arrow plaque pointing at the crossing.¹ The flashing pattern can be activated with pushbuttons or passive (e.g., video or infrared) pedestrian detection, and should be unlit when not activated.

Considerations

Agencies should:²

- Install RRFBs in the median rather than the far-side of the roadway if there is a pedestrian refuge or other type of median.
- Use solar-power panels to eliminate the need for a power source.
- Reserve the use of RRFBs for locations with significant pedestrian safety issues, as over-use of RRFB treatments may diminish their effectiveness.

Agencies shall not:²

- Use RRFBs without the presence of a pedestrian, school or trail crossing warning sign.
- Use RRFBs for crosswalks across approaches controlled by YIELD signs, STOP signs, traffic control signals, or pedestrian hybrid beacons, except for the approach or egress from a roundabout.
